

Nature Connects is made possible by a bequest from Stanley M. Howe. Additional grant-funded support was received from Travel Iowa, the Greater Muscatine Chamber of Commerce & Industry, Muscatine Charities, and the Iowa Department of Cultural Affairs.

Nature Connects in the Stanley Gallery

On View through February 20, 2022 - Free Admission

Middle & High School Exhibition

March 10 - May 15, 2022

Every other year, the talents of area middle and high school students are highlighted in the Stanley Gallery. This year, in partnership with Muscatine Sister Cities and Global Education at Stanley Center, local students can choose to compete for local and international cash prizes by submitting artwork in response to a theme, "Sustainable Water for All," selected by Sisters Cities International. Local competition winners will be announced at 5:30 p.m. on March 31st!

March 31, 5:00 - 6:30 p.m. – Join us in celebrating the accomplishments of our local student artists at a public reception. Drop in anytime – award announcements at 5:30 p.m.

Historic House Exhibitions

Jon Fasanelli-Cawelti

Through February 20, 2022

Works on Paper - Broadmoor School

Gift of Col. Richard G. and Sandra D. Toye

Through February 20, 2022

Art Array 2022 - Muscatine County Arts Council

March 18 - May 29, 2022

Closed to the Public

To accommodate the changing of exhibitions, the Muscatine Art Center will be closed to the public from February 21 through March 8, 2022. Please call 563-263-8282 to request an appointment.

Jon Fasanelli-Cawelti, City Blues, mixed media

